

NEWS RELEASE

DATE: July 26, 2018

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Triathlon announces the second and final stage in the sale of its operating assets to Electro Rent Corporation d.b.a. as Rush Computer Rentals.

Morrisville, NC – Triathlon Capital Corp, the parent company of Triathlon Computer LLC, is pleased to announce that it has concluded a two-part agreement to sell its operating assets to Electro Rent Corporation d.b.a. as Rush Computer Rentals.

Jeff McFarlane, CEO & founder of Triathlon, will continue in his capacity as Vice-President / General Manager for Rush Computer Rentals an Electro Rent company.

Effective immediately, Triathlon Computer LLC has ceased trading and responsibility for the global resale of Rush's surplus, excess and end-of-lease product sales will be handled by legacy Triathlon sales staff who have now transitioned to Rush Computer Rentals.

Past customers and vendors of Triathlon Computer LLC are encouraged to establish new accounts with Electro Rent to ensure the transition is seamless in terms of business continuity. Purchase Orders should only be issued to and from Rush Computer Rentals going forward.

About Triathlon Capital Corp

Through its portfolio of companies in the Information Technology industry, Triathlon Capital Corp, provides its customers' and OEM partners, an array of IT Lifecycle Management Solutions.

For more information see the following web sites:

www.triathloncc.com